

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

A. PURPOSE

The overall purpose of the Compensation Committee (the “Committee”) of Midas Gold Corp. (“Midas Gold”) [and its subsidiaries (collectively, the “Corporation”)] is to implement and oversee human resources and compensation plans and policies approved by the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of the Corporation as they affect the executive officers of the Corporation.

B. COMPOSITION, PROCEDURES AND ORGANIZATION

1. The Committee shall consist of at least four members of the Board, each of whom shall be “independent” within the meaning of all applicable Canadian and U.S. securities laws and the rules of each stock exchange on which Midas Gold’s securities are listed (collectively, the “Applicable Regulations”), except if and to the extent that the Applicable Regulations permit otherwise.
2. The Board, at its organizational meeting held in conjunction with each annual general meeting of the shareholders, shall appoint the members of the Committee for the ensuing year. The Board may at any time remove or replace any member of the Committee and may fill any vacancy in the Committee. Unless the Board shall have appointed a chair of the Committee, the members of the Committee shall elect a chair from among their number (the “Chair”).
3. The secretary of the Committee shall be the Corporate Secretary, unless otherwise determined by the Committee.
4. The Committee shall have the opportunity to meet at each regularly scheduled Board meeting, but shall meet not less than twice per year, and at such locations as the Chair of the Committee shall determine and may also meet at any other time or times on the call of the Chair of the Committee or any two of the other members. The quorum for meetings shall be a majority of the members of the Committee, present in person or by telephone or other telecommunication device that permits all persons participating in the meeting to speak and to hear each other.
5. The Chief Executive Officer shall be available to advise the Committee, shall receive notice of all meetings of the Committee and may attend meetings at the invitation of the Chair of the Committee; provided, that the Chief Executive Officer may not be present during the Committee’s voting or deliberations on the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer.
6. The Committee shall have access to such officers and employees and such information respecting Midas Gold and may, in its sole discretion, engage such compensation consultants, independent legal counsel and other advisors (collectively, “Compensation Advisors”) at the expense of Midas Gold, all as it considers to be necessary or advisable in order to perform its duties and responsibilities. Prior to engaging any Compensation Advisor, the Committee shall assess the independence of the Compensation Advisor, taking into consideration the following factors, as well as any other factors required to be considered pursuant to the Applicable Regulations:

- (a) the provision of other services to Midas Gold by the person that employs the Compensation Advisor;
 - (b) the amount of fees received from Midas Gold by the person that employs the Compensation Advisor;
 - (c) the policies and procedures of the person that employs the Compensation Advisor that are designed to prevent conflicts of interest;
 - (d) any business or personal relationship of the Compensation Advisor with a member of the Committee;
 - (e) any Midas Gold shares owned by the Compensation Advisor; and
 - (f) any business or personal relationship of the Compensation Advisor or the person employing the Compensation Advisor with an executive officer of Midas Gold.
7. The Committee shall be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of any Compensation Advisor retained by the Committee. Midas Gold shall provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any Compensation Advisor retained by the Committee.

C. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The duties and responsibilities of the Committee shall be as follows:
- (a) to recommend to the Board compensation policies and guidelines for application to Midas Gold;
 - (b) to work with management so that Midas Gold has in place programs to attract and develop management of the highest calibre and a process to provide for the orderly succession of management;
 - (c) to review corporate goals and objectives relevant to the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and, in light of those goals and objectives, to annually recommend to the Board the annual salary, bonus and other benefits, direct and indirect, of the Chief Executive Officer (provided, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee shall approve all awards to the Chief Executive Officer pursuant to the Midas Gold stock option plan and any other plan that delegates to the Committee such authority);
 - (d) to annually review and approve the compensation for all other executive officers after considering the recommendations of the Chief Executive Officer, all within the human resources and compensation policies and guidelines approved by the Board;

- (e) to implement and administer compensation policies approved by the Board concerning the following:
 - (i) executive compensation, contracts, stock plans or other incentive plans, including making awards of equity-based compensation and options, or where the plan or contract does not delegate to the Committee such authority, making recommendations to the Board regarding such awards; and,
- (f) from time to time, to review the Corporation's broad policies and programs in relation to benefits;
- (g) to annually receive from the Chief Executive Officer recommendations concerning annual compensation policies and budgets, including stock options, for all employees;
- (h) from time to time, to review with the Chief Executive Officer the Corporation's broad policies on compensation for all employees and overall labour relations strategy for employees;
- (i) to develop and monitor the overall approach to remuneration for the directors of Midas Gold and, subject to approval by the Board, to implement a remuneration program for the directors and the roles within the Board committees;
- (j) to review Midas Gold's incentive compensation arrangements to determine whether they encourage excessive risk-taking, to review and discuss at least annually the relationship between risk management policies and practices and compensation, and to evaluate compensation policies and practices that could mitigate any such risk;
- (k) to periodically review the adequacy and form of the compensation of directors so that the compensation realistically reflects the responsibilities and risks involved in being an effective director, and to report and make recommendations to the Board accordingly;
- (l) to oversee Midas Gold's compliance with the Applicable Regulations regarding shareholder approval of certain executive compensation matters, including advisory votes on executive compensation and the frequency of such votes, and the requirement that, with limited exceptions, shareholders approve equity compensation plans;
- (m) to report regularly to the Board on all of the Committee's activities and findings during that year;
- (n) if applicable, to develop a calendar of activities to be undertaken by the Committee for each ensuing year and to submit the calendar in the appropriate format to the Board within a reasonable period of time following each annual general meeting of shareholders;
- (o) to review and assess, on an annual basis, the adequacy of this charter and recommend any proposed changes to the Board; and
- (p) to review executive compensation disclosure before publicly disclosed.
